3. The Division effort to maintain adequate coverage of an increasing number of source publications from the Latin American area has been additionally strained by a recent heavy inflow of Cuban provincial press sources. The receipt of a number of specific requirements, over and above the established and continuing program of reporting on Latin America, has also over burdened existing exploitation facilities. Such requirements have been levied by DDP; e.g., information on dissidents in the Cuban armed forces, Cuban recruitment of foreign technicians; State Department, information on Latin American May Day visitors to the Sino-Soviet Bloc; [redacted] The necessity for an additional manpower commitment to the Latin America area, at the expense of other area coverage, is under study.
