

DD/S 72-2389

15 JUN 1972

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Personnel
Director, SIPS Task Force ✓

SUBJECT : Identification of Persons Authorized to Classify National Security Information

REFERENCE : [REDACTED] dated 13 June 1972

1. Headquarters Regulation [REDACTED] directs the Deputy Director for Support to compile lists of positions to which authority to classify National Security Information has been delegated, and to maintain and update them quarterly. To satisfy the requirement fully, we must be able to produce: STATINTL

a. An overall Agency list by position title by level of classification authority.

b. An overall Agency list by name of individual employee by level of classification authority.

c. The identity of the individual who occupied a particular position at a particular point in time (a specific date) subsequent to 1 June 1972 in order that we can respond to future requests for that information.

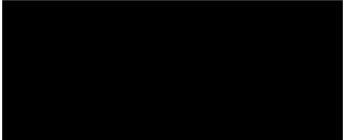

2. The first of these lists must be produced no later than 29 June 1972 in time for them to be available for submission to the Interagency Classification Review Committee on 1 July 1972. The initial delegations of authority are to be submitted by the several components of the Agency to the Office of the DD/S by 15 June 1972. I will make them available to the Director of Personnel as soon thereafter as possible.

3. I would like to have your proposals for dealing with multiple incumbency positions, history (paragraph c), the related problem of effective date, and any other problems that become apparent to you by 7 July 1972. I would also like to have by that time your suggestions for providing a means to identify individual classifiers of documents to comply with  Part VI, paragraph G.

4. The lists required in paragraphs 1 a and b above should be classified Secret and assigned the exemption category 5B(2).

STATINTL
