Dear Mr. Osborn:

STATINTL
STATINTL
STATINTL
This is to confirm my conversation 18 June 1970 with [REDACTED] of your office in which I advised him that the Brookings Institution has no objection and no proprietary interest in the revision and publication of an unclassified version of "Where's What" prepared by [REDACTED] while under a Brookings' Federal Executive Fellowship in 1965-66.

Since the original publication of "Where's What" was authored by [REDACTED] while under a Brookings' Fellowship, I would appreciate a statement being made in the unclassified version to the effect that "the interpretations and conclusions in such publication are those of the author or authors and do not purport to represent the views of the other staff members, officers, or trustees of the Brookings Institution."

Sincerely,

James M. Mitchell
Director
