1. Referent memorandum maps the course for a smaller CIA Historical Program with focus upon situational histories rather than component or station histories. Proposed topics, one relating to the Support Directorate, are listed in the attachment.
2. We are invited to suggest other topics which may be appropriate for development of histories treating "situations in which the Agency has provided significant support to U.S. policy or other topical subjects involving major support to intelligence programs". Please provide me any thoughts you may have on this subject by 5 January 1973.
