OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF DEFENSE
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20301

STAT

30 April 1982

Admiral Bobby R. Inman, USN
Deputy Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Admiral Inman:

I was pleased to learn about your sponsorship of a colloquium on military, intelligence, and civil missions in space during the next 20 years. That is, in my opinion, a subject area from which the United States could derive exceptional payoff--providing we do not delay in focusing the proper attention.

I am happy to accept your invitation to moderate the session on Future Military Missions in Space. Unfortunately, I will be unable to attend the remaining sessions because of conflicts with long-standing commitments. I was told this would be agreeable to you.

I applaud your initiative with this undertaking, and encourage your continued leadership in this important area.

Sincerely,

Norman R. Augustine
Chairman

I was truly sorry to hear of your decision to leave government service. You will be greatly missed... yours has been an enormous contribution to our nation.
