Honorable William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence
Washington, D. C. 20505

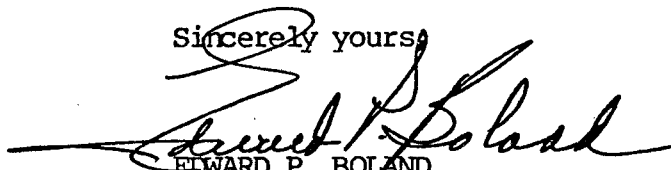

Dear Mr. Casey:

This is to inform you that, effective immediately after his resignation as Deputy Director of Central Intelligence, Admiral Inman will become a consultant to the Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence. The Committee has not yet determined the particular issues it will ask Admiral Inman to address, but, as in the case of the Committee's previous consultancy arrangements, the Committee will notify you and other appropriate officials when these decisions have been made.

The Committee will extend to Admiral Inman during the period of his consultancy all the clearances which he now holds and requests that appropriate notification of this fact be made on CIA records.

With every good wish, I am

Sincerely yours,

EDWARD P. BOLAND
