The Director of Central Intelligence

Washington, D. C. 20505

21 OCT 1982

The Honorable Barry Goldwater, Chairman
Select Committee on Intelligence
United States Senate
Washington, D. C. 20510

Dear Mr. Chairman:

I was pleased to receive your letter of 22 September 1982 which conveyed Committee approval of the adjustments necessary to keep [redacted] collection site upgrade on schedule. Along with your approval, you expressed concern that part of the necessary offsets were made at the expense of the

25X1

It is never an easy task to identify alternate sources of funds to deal with unexpected developments. This was particularly true in the case of the [redacted] situation where [redacted] believed it prudent to examine numerous line items for potential contribution to the [redacted] shortfall rather than place a fewer number of projects in serious jeopardy. [redacted]

At the time funding sources were being identified for the [redacted] problem, there was some uncertainty involving both the Air Force test schedule for the host vehicle and technical aspects of [redacted]. These uncertainties led [redacted] to conclude that a deferral of FY 1982 funding and a partial reduction in FY 1983 would not adversely impact upon system availability as long as [redacted] received appropriate support in FY 1984. [redacted]

At this stage of our FY 1984 budget build process, [redacted] has proposed that a sufficient level of funds be included in the FY 1984 NFIP to support the [redacted] development. This level is well protected and the current phasing should not complicate or unnecessarily impede progress toward improving the communications capabilities of the [redacted]
