Dear Bill:

I was delighted to read in today's paper about your description of the insurgents in El Salvador. Doubtless you have read the Freedom House publication "El Salvador: Peaceful Intervention or Armed Struggle".

Despite your efforts and those of others in the government to tell what is going on in Central America, the American Media appears to have again fallen for an adroit and large scale propaganda campaign.

I have some ideas as how we might win the propaganda battle -- and the war. I'm coming to Washington Thursday evening for a conference on Friday -- until 2:00 p.m. I'll be staying at National Hotel in Arlington (521-1900). If you would like to discuss this, please leave a message.

With all good wishes,

Sincerely,

L.W.
