

Washington, D. C. 20505

12 October 1982

Mr. John M. Clarke
The Brookings Institution
1775 Massachusetts Ave., N.W.
Washington, DC 20036

Dear John: .

It was good to get your letter concerning your Seminar group visiting the Agency on November 17th. We welcome such a visit and will do our best to give the Seminar a good grasp of what our business is all about. I look forward to participating as much as my schedule will allow.

[redacted] of my Public Affairs staff will contact Peter Malof to begin making the arrangements. I'll look forward to seeing you on the 17th. If my calendar frees up prior to then, I'll call you to see if we can work out a good time for the two of us to get together for lunch.

STAT

Sincerely,

[redacted signature]

STAT

John N. McMahon
Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

STAT

I'm off on a trip
will be back the end of October —
Cheers —