Dear Mr. Farrell:

I greatly appreciate your kind invitation to attend your 3 March luncheon and discussion on strategic decision-making.

I am sorry to report that I expect to be away at that time and therefore will be unable to attend. I look forward, however, to reading the book you sent, and for which I am grateful. I don't get to read everything I want to these days, but I'll try to get to it soon.

Thank you again for the opportunity. I hope you have a very successful meeting.

Sincerely,

William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence
