Dear Mr. Casey:

The ninth annual Conservative Political Action Conference will be held at the Mayflower Hotel here in Washington, D.C. from February 25-28.

The highlight of the conference will be a banquet on Friday evening, February 26, honoring President and Mrs. Reagan.

If you are familiar with CPAC, you know that each year it is attended by conservative leaders from all across the country. In reviewing the Reagan Administration's spectacular accomplishments during their first year in office, we concluded that the occasion merited a special celebration this year.

We expect approximately 1000 people to attend the Reagan Banquet this year and it promises to be a very special evening during which the Administration's achievements will be honored.

We hope that, as an important figure in the Reagan Administration, you and Mrs. Casey will be our guests at dinner.

A small reception will be held in the Presidential Room of the Mayflower at 7:00 P.M. and the dinner will begin at 8:00 P.M. in the Grand Ballroom.

We hope that your schedule will allow you and your wife to join us on the 26th of February. Our salute to the Reagan Administration will be greatly enhanced by your participation.

Sincerely,

Paul Laxalt
