Dear Mr. Casey:

The members of the Yale Political Union would like to hear you speak this spring. We would be honored if you would agree to keynote a debate on the role of the CIA.

The Yale Political Union has been a major center for political debate for 48 years. Recent keynoters have included George McGovern and William F. Buckley.

Arrangements for our guests usually include a dinner with students, a press conference, and then the debate with speeches by the two keynoters, a few students' speeches, and then summing up speeches by our guests. Our schedule is, of course, flexible, and we would be happy to make any necessary changes to accomodate your schedule.

Any evening, Sunday through Thursday, from mid-January to mid-April will be convenient for us. We will, of course, be happy to reimburse you for travel expenses and to provide accomodations if you would like to spend the night at Yale.

If it is not possible for you to participate in a debate, perhaps you could give an independent address or participate in a forum. I look forward to hearing from you and hope to have the honor of welcoming you to Yale this spring.

Respectfully yours,

Andrea Charters
