ADMINISTRATOR

October 4, 1982

The Honorable William J. Casey
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington DC 20505

Dear Mr. Casey:

The Center for Law and National Security at the University of Virginia School of Law is presenting a conference this fall on the subject of the "United States - Soviet Union Relationship: Prospects for the Future." The conference will address the U.S. - Soviet relationship in an historical context. We have planned panels on the Military Balance, Points of Tension, SALT/START, Human Rights, INF/MBFR, and Trade. A copy of the agenda and invited participants is attached. We hope that you can attend.

The conference is scheduled for November 5-7, 1982 at the Boar's Head Inn in Charlottesville, Virginia. A block of rooms has been reserved at the Boar's Head Inn where the meeting will take place. A registration form which includes costs and arrangements for the program is attached; spouses and family members are welcome to attend the conference as well.

We anticipate that the audience will consist of other leaders from government, universities, and private law practice and we hope that you will accept our invitation. If you will be unable to attend or if you know of someone else in your organization who would be interested in participating, please feel free to extend this invitation to them. If you have any questions, please call Mari Normyle, Administrator of the Center for Law and National Security, at (804) 924-4748.

Sincerely,

John Norton Moore
