Deputy Director for Intelligence

- OGI published a typescript, requested by the DCI, on the health of Andropov.
- OEA and SOVA prepared memoranda for the DCI to send to Secretary Shultz on Sino-Soviet relations.
- SOVA is preparing a paper for the President on Andropov's power and the opportunities for the U.S. to influence Soviet policy.
- EURA provided unclassified material on the peace movement to Bob Simms, the Special Assistant and Press Secretary to Judge Clark, through the Office of External Affairs.

25X1

- OSWR participated in an interagency briefing of the UN-CW experts group two weeks ago. It appears to have helped. The UN group concluded that "circumstantial" evidence supports U.S. charges of lethal chemical use by Soviets and their surrogates in Afghanistan and Southeast Asia.
- EURA will debrief Bradley Graham of the Washington Post on his experiences in West Germany and will brief him on the situation in Poland in preparation for his assignment there.

National Intelligence Council

- NIO/General Purpose Forces met with Generals Fauer, D/NSA; Marks, ACSI/AF; and Odom, ACSI/USA, to discuss issues derived from the DCI's trip to Europe. Each has been invited to address the issues identified in his area of interest in return correspondence to the DCI.
- NIO/GPF also assembled briefing books for the DCI and SACEUR in preparation for their meeting on 14 December.
- We plan to try to coordinate draft estimates this week on U.S.-Japan economic relations and the high-technology arms market. If then cleared by the DCI, they will be ready for an NFIB meeting next week.
- Chairman, NIC attended sessions of Fred Ikle's Defense Policy Board, which included an interesting discussion of problems in DoD's management of technological transfer.
- A/NIO/AL [] briefed Senator Mathias and Arch Roberts (HFAC staffer) on the Pakistani nuclear program. Senator Mathias asked for periodic followup briefings on the subject.
