OSWR and OGI met with Ron Frankum, Deputy Director of OSTP, to discuss the proposed sale by Belgium of ITT advanced telephone switching systems to China.

OSWR participated in an interagency briefing of the UN-CW experts group two weeks ago. It appears to have helped. The UN group concluded that "circumstantial" evidence supports US charges of lethal chemical use by Soviets and their surrogates in Afghanistan and Southeast Asia.

Looking Ahead

EURA will debrief Bradley Graham of the Washington Post on his experiences in West Germany and will brief him on the situation in Poland in preparation for his assignment there.
