Personnel - No report.

General Counsel

- An Administrative law judge in the Navy Task Force 157 case awarded civil service credit to the claimants. At the same time he recognized the Agency's special statutory authority to introduce personal services contracts notwithstanding any other provisions of law. However, the decision did not provide clear guidance on when an individual designated as an "independent contractor" in an employment contract would nevertheless be found to be entitled to civil service credit.

Inspector General

- We briefed the DDCI, the Executive Director, and the Director of the Office of Personnel on our findings of our survey of staff applicant processing procedures. We will also brief the DDA on 6 December. The draft report will be sent to the Office of Personnel, Office of Security, and Office of Medical Services for review early this week.

25X1

- A draft NPIC inspection report should be ready for the IG's initial review in two weeks.

Comptroller

- HAC completed markup of the FY-83 Defense Appropriations Bill. The Bill was amended in Full Committee to provide funds to cover the Agency's FY-83 pay costs resulting from the October 1982 federal pay raise which were inadvertently omitted during Subcommittee deliberations. Current plans call for floor action by the House on 7 December, followed by action in the Senate on their Bill 8 December. Conference is now planned for the week of 13 December.
- Directorate FY-84 Congressional Budget submissions are due on 8 December. We are still planning to complete the Agency's Congressional Budget submission by early January.
- We are waiting for approval from the Senate Appropriations Committee and the HPSCI for our request to reprogram funds to lease
