Dear Bill:

I am writing to inform you personally about international travel I plan to undertake later this fall in connection with my responsibilities as Attorney General. I have enclosed a tentative itinerary and meeting schedule for the proposed trip, which will take me to areas of great importance to the development of our policies and programs concerning such high-priority items on the Department of Justice agenda as narcotics trafficking and refugee matters.

Members of my staff and officials of the Department of Justice have contacted State Department and CIA representatives and are working with them in developing plans for the trip. In view of the range of important issues which may come up, I would be very pleased to meet with you and receive the benefit of your expertise with respect to matters of which we ought to be aware. //

Many thanks for the help your people have already provided, and I look forward to working with you in making this trip a highly successful one for the Administration.

Warm regards.

Sincerely,

Bill

William French Smith
Attorney General
