SUBJECT: ODP Support

1. As you know, I have been quite concerned about the apparent lack of ODP support for the development of an automated National HUMINT Requirements List (NHRL). On 27 February 1979, we formally requested ODP assistance for this project, but ODP has not yet cleared the first hurdle--completion of a feasibility study. [REDACTED] is aware of these problems and shares my concern. He has asked [REDACTED] and me to do everything we can from our end to get the NHRL underway.

STATINTL 2. [REDACTED] informs me that he has been working with you to break the logjam. So far, your efforts appear to have borne fruit. The new ODP project officers, [REDACTED] and Nick [REDACTED], met with my people yesterday, and they seem determined to get things started. I am encouraged by this development and hope that it is followed shortly by a completed feasibility study. I appreciate your efforts in our behalf.
