

THE DIRECTOR OF
CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

National Intelligence Council

19 February 1982

NOTE FOR:

STAT

Please note the checked item which brought to my attention. It apparently refers to pre-Korean War CA Ops in China.

STAT

STAT

DG

Dave Gries

At Palmer House, Chicago

TIME SCHEDULE FOR PANELS

Panels and special events at the Annual Meeting will be scheduled according to the following time schedule. For the time and room assignments, consult the Program, which will be mailed in mid-February via third-class mail.

Friday, April 2

- AM 9:30-11:30 AM (Panels)
- PM 1:30-4:45 PM (Back-to-back panels)
- or
- 2:00-4:00 PM (Panels)
- 5:30-7:30 PM AAS Annual Reception

Saturday, April 3

- AM 8:30-11:30 AM (Panel on Burmese Studies)
- 9:30-11:30 AM (Panels)
- PM 1:30-3:30 PM (Panel on Regional and Global Politics of South Asia)
- 1:30-4:45 PM (Back-to-back panels)
- 2:00-4:00 PM (Panels)
- 5:00-6:00 PM Presidential Address
- 6:00-7:00 PM Annual Membership Meeting

Sunday, April 4

- AM 9:30-11:30 AM (Panels)
- PM 1:30-3:30 PM (Panels)

TIME SCHEDULE FOR PANEL SESSIONS AND INDIVIDUAL PAPERS AT THE 1982 AAS ANNUAL MEETING

Friday, April 2, AM

- 1 Symposium: Mao Zedong Reassessed. Parris H. Chang.
- 2 Pakistan: A "Front-Line" State? Robert La Porte, Jr.
- 3 Human Rights and Political Prisoners in Southeast Asia. Kit Machado.
- 4 Painting-Recitation in Asian Traditions: Issues in Religio-Secular Communication, Semiotics, and the Performing Arts. Barbara Ruch.
- 5 Indian Law and Courts in Their Social and Political Environment. Susanne Hoeber Rudolph.
- 6 Intellectual Diversity in Song China. James T.C. Liu.
- 7 Symposium: State Granaries and Food Supply in Qing China, 1650-1850. Albert Feuerwerker.
- 8 Mainland Southeast Asian Archaeology in the 1980s. Wilhelm G. Solheim, II.
- 9 Japanese Literature in Comparative Perspective: The Pedagogical Challenge. Masao Miyoshi.
- 10 Japanese Labor Policy under Authoritarianism, 1931-1945. Gordon M. Berger.
- 11 Individual Papers (Southeast Asia and China).

Friday, April 2, PM

- 12 Cities of Colonial South Asia: Structures, Problems and Policies. Frank F. Conlon and Dilip K. Basu.
- 13 Southeast Asian Curers: Change and Continuity. Clark E. Cunningham.
- 14 Symposium: Teaching in China—What We Give, What We Get. Steve Thorpe.
- 15 China and Latin America: Comparative Models and Relations. Flora Botton.
- 16 Modern Asia and the Media. Linda S. Wojtan.
- 17 Politico-Economic Issues in Contemporary Thailand. Clark D. Neher.
- 18 Early Korean-Japanese Relations: A Critical Review. Gari K. Ledyard.
- 19 Studying Indian Muslims: A Symposium on Books Edited by Intiaz Ahmad. C.M. Naim.
- 20 The Changing Significance of Popular Literacy in Chinese History, 960-1937. Thomas H.C. Lee.
- 21 After Genji: The Achievements of Late Heian Monogatari. Thomas H. Rohlich.
- 22 Individual Paper Sessions (South Asia)

Saturday, April 3, AM

- 23 The Past, Present and Future (?) in Burmese Studies: A State of the Art Panel. John P. Ferguson.
- 24 Scholars and Journalists on Southeast Asia: What Can They Learn from Each Other? A Roundtable. Donald Emmerson.
- 25 Language Learning in Situ: Intensive Language Programs in East Asia. Mei-Ling Hsu.
- 26 Approaches to the Word-Image Relationship in Asian Painting. Vishakha Desai and Maribeth Graybill.
- 27 The State and Art of Post-Mao Chinese Literature. Winston L.Y. Yang.
- 28 Pro-Poor Policies for South Asia. Sylvia Vatuk.
- 29 Political and Economic Struggles in China: Two Lines or Three? Dorothy J. Solinger.
- 30 Recent Trends in Japanese Policy-Making: Responses to the Shocks of the Seventies. Margaret A. McKean.
- 31 Ethics in South Asia: The Secular and the Sacred. Dipankar Chatterjee.
- 32 Angura: A New Genre of Japanese Theatre? David G. Goodman.
- 33 Collection Development in East Asian Collections: Trends and Problems. Richard C. Howard.
- 34 Individual Paper Sessions (China).

Saturday, April 3, PM

- 35 Regional and Global Politics of South Asia. Robert Goheen.
- 36 Modern Theatre in India. Dinesh C. Mathur.
- 37 Language Structures and Chinese Literary Traditions. Yan-shuan Lao and Timothy Light.
- 38 Risk-Minimizing Strategies of Multinational Corporations in Southeast Asia. William S. Turley.
- 39 Central Intelligence Agency Covert Operations. Morton H. Halperin.
- 40 One Hundred Years of Korean-American Relations, 1882-1982. Fred H. Harrington.
- 41 Recent Research on Guangzhou. Stanley Rosen.
- 42 Buddhist-Shinto "Syncretism": New Perspectives and Interpretations. Robert Lee.
- 43 Early Chinese Divination: The Yijing and Its Context. Richard Kunst.
- 44 Asian Studies for Non-Asian Minorities. Constance M. Wilson.
- 45 Individual Paper Sessions (Japan).
- 46 Presidential Address. Paul Wheatley.

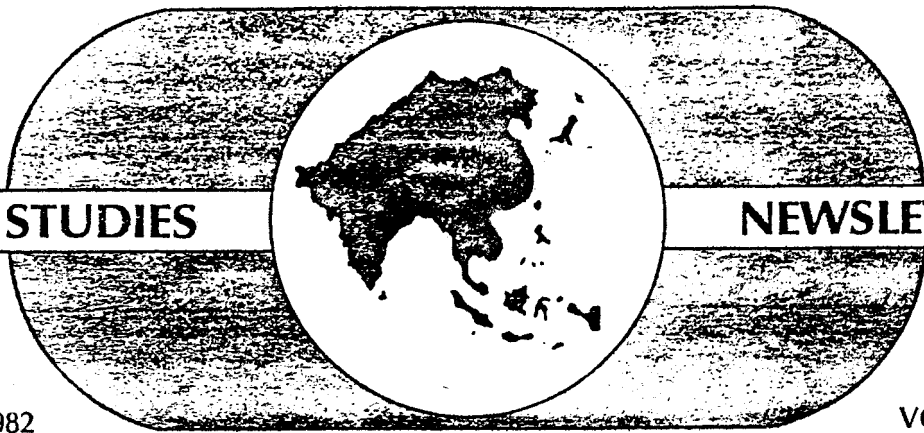

Sunday, April 4, AM

- 47 Focus on Kenji Mizoguchi: The Man and His Films. Peter Grilli.
- 48 Politics, Law and Religious Endowments in British India. Bernard S. Cohn.
- 49 Spoken Drama in the People's Republic of China Today. Edward M. Gunn.
- 50 Investments by Asian Developing Countries. Krishna Kumar.
- 51 Recent Chinese Historiography. Li Yu-ning.
- 52 Interpretive Approaches to Insular Southeast Asian Languages and Cultures. Richard McGinn.
- 53 Roundtable: The Koryo Officialdom: A Comparison with China and Japan. Hugh H.W. Kang.
- 54 The Making of the Chinese Working Class. Tang Tsou.
- 55 Who Was Listening to Vyasa's Song? An Exploration of South Asian Texts and Their Audiences. A.K. Ramanujan.
- 56 Individual Paper Sessions (China).

Sunday, April 4, PM

- 57 Ideology, Consciousness and Legitimations of the Social Order in Peasant Societies. Benedict Kerkvliet.
- 58 Symposium: Japanese Intellectuals in Republican China: Fashioning a Mission. Ernest P. Young.
- 59 Problems of Merit and Wealth: Buddhism, Cosmology and the Thai Political Economy. Lucien M. Hanks.
- 60 Basic Issues in Japanese Language Pedagogy in the 1980s. Tazuko A. Nonane.
- 61 Approaches to Teaching Chinese Civilization. Richard W. Bodman.

ASSOCIATION FOR ASIAN STUDIES, INC.

ASIAN STUDIES

NEWSLETTER

JANUARY, 1982

VOL. XXVII, NO. 3

Paul Wheatley, President, University of Chicago
Ainslie T. Embree, Vice-President, Columbia University

Rhoads Murphey, Secretary-Treasurer, The University of Michigan

ASSOCIATION NEWS

1982 ANNUAL MEETING UPDATE

This issue of the Newsletter contains the preliminary schedule of panel sessions and announcements on meetings in conjunction. Please refer to the November issue for information and application or reservation forms concerning the following:

- Pre-registration (also see page 3)
- Palmer House Hotel reservations (also see page 3 and 24)
- Placement
- Group flights to Chicago

The Program will be mailed third class/printed matter in mid-February

SPECIAL MEMBERSHIP MEETING

Notice is hereby given of a special Membership Meeting to be held at the AAS Secretariat office, 1 Lane Hall, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, on February 22, 1982, at 9:00 AM for the purpose of counting votes cast in the election of the Association's Vice-President, Board of Directors, council members, and 1983 Nominating Committee. The Secretary-Treasurer will at that time exercise his proxy in casting votes sent to him by members in the form of ballots, as those ballots have been marked by members.

AAS READING LISTS

The following reading lists are now available in the following units at the per-unit prices indicated. These prices reflect the actual costs of photocopying, postage, and handling.

Members are urged to send copies of their reading lists and syllabi to the AAS Secretariat. The next summary listing of materials available will be included in the May Newsletter. (Please—if possible—do not send us lists reproduced from purple ditto masters; our machine cannot copy them!)

Reading Lists Available

China ($5.00)

- Suzanne Barnett, "Chinese Civilization" (to about 1800), history, 9 pages.
- Suzanne Barnett, "China since 1800," history, 9 pages.
- Suzanne Barnett, "Misunderstanding China," history, 6 pages.
- Suzanne Barnett, "Murder, Law, and Popular Culture in China," history, 5 pages.

AAS CONSTITUTIONAL REVISION

The Ad Hoc Committee on Constitutional Revision, chaired by Joseph W. Elder, University of Wisconsin, will present to the AAS Membership Meeting in Chicago a series of constitutional changes recommended by the Board of Directors. These changes relate to nominating procedures, membership categories, and a dues increase. Members are urged to attend this session. (The March Newsletter will contain a report on the proposed changes.)

In accordance with the AAS Constitution, "All proposed amendments shall be discussed at the first Membership Meeting following the proposal, after which they shall be submitted by the Board of Directors to the membership at a special Membership Meeting in the manner provided in Article V, Section 1(e).* After allowing sixty days for returns they shall be considered adopted, if approved by a majority of those casting ballots." (Article VII, Section 2.)

Amendments to the Constitution may be proposed "(a) by the Board of Directors; (b) by members attending the Annual Membership Meeting [Article V, Section 1(e)]; or (c) by petition signed by three percent of the membership in good

[Continued on page 2]

AAS NEWSLETTER DEADLINE

The deadline for receipt of copy for the March issue of the Newsletter is January 29, 1982.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Association News	1
34th Annual Meeting	1
Time Schedule for Panels	4
Details of Meetings in Conjunction	5
Hotel Reservation Form	24
Miscellaneous News	8
Exhibits and Performances	11
Study Programs	11
Conferences and Meetings	14
Grants and Fellowships	15
AAS Professional Personnel Registry	18
Publications and Resource Materials	20
Late Announcements	19, 24