Dear Mr. Glassman,

I invite your participation in a seminar on the Third World which the DCI's Intelligence Producers Council will sponsor this fall. The seminar will meet on 21 and 22 October at the Department of State, Washington, D.C., and I shall function as Chairman.

The seminar will provide a forum for senior and analyst-level members of the Intelligence Community, executives from consumer agencies, and distinguished academicians to interact on questions pertaining to information needs on the Third World. Briefings will be interspersed with panel discussions, all designed to provide a stimulating environment for the exchange of ideas.

Seminar participants are being invited to membership in one of four geographic panels—Latin America, Sub-Saharan Africa, East Asia or Middle East/South Asia—depending on area of greatest expertise. National Intelligence Officers (NIOs) for these regions have agreed to serve as panel chairmen. The NIO for Latin America, Mr. Constantine Menges, has specifically requested your membership on the Latin America panel. If your schedule permits, your participation would greatly enhance our efforts to understand the problems we face in providing what is needed on Third World matters.

Please have a member of your staff contact the seminar coordinator to convey your decision. [redacted] Intelligence Producers Council Staff, can be reached at [redacted]
