MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Personnel

SUBJECT : American Chemical Society - Award for Creative Invention

1. This memorandum submits for your signature a letter to Mr. Irving Kator, Executive Vice-Chairman of the Interagency Advisory Group.
2. The attached memorandum from Mr. Kator invites nominations for the Award for Creative Invention which is sponsored by the American Chemical Society. The purpose of this award is to recognize individual inventors (in private industry and Government) for successful application of research in chemistry or chemical engineering which contribute to the material prosperity and happiness of the people.
3. Members of the Suggestion and Invention Awards Committee were asked to canvass their Directorates for individuals who might be nominated for this award. No nominees were received. The Agency has never nominated a candidate for this award, which was established in 1966.
4. It is recommended that you sign the attached letter to Mr. Kator advising him that this Agency has no nominations for the 1968 Award for Creative Invention. The deadline for submissions is 1 March 1968.

Dear Mr. Kator:

Thank you for your letter inviting the Central Intelligence Agency to submit a nomination for the Award for Creative Invention which is sponsored by the American Chemical Society.

After careful consideration, we have decided not to nominate a candidate this year. We appreciate being given the opportunity to participate in this program and hope to nominate some of our outstanding young men for this award at some future time.

Sincerely,

Robert S. Wattles
Director of Personnel
