Mr. Helms
Admiral Raborn

Our nominee for the National Civil Service League Award this year was R. Jack Smith. He is not among the ten winners who are listed on the attached paper. Recipients of the Award will not be announced publicly until next Tuesday.

It is disappointing that Dr. Smith did not receive the Award but our over-all record on this one is good. We have had five winners since 1960. They were Messrs. Kirkpatrick, Kent, Lundahl, Lay, and Helms. Dr. Herbert Scoville was our only other unsuccessful candidate.

STAT

On behalf of the Board of Directors and Selection Committee, I cordially invite you to attend and participate in the National Civil Service League's twelfth annual Career Service Awards Program.

We would be especially grateful if you, as one who knows the League's work, would help us honor the ten 1966 Awardees.

This program honors and materially rewards ten public servants for their contributions to efficiency, economy and quality in public administration. During the past eleven years, the Awards have become increasingly coveted by Federal officials and employees.

This accelerated interest has been possible only because people like you have been generous in helping the League meet the costs of the Awards program. Will you assist us this year by promoting attendance and tax deductible public service contributions from those you know? If you will, you may use the enclosed or call on us for more information.

Please do join us. Use the enclosed to make your own reservations for the Career Service Awards banquet at Washington's Sheraton-Park Hotel on April 29, 1966.

Sincerely,

J. Edward Day
President
