MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Support

Bob:

I was rather surprised to find that the list of civilian annuitants currently under active CIA personal services contracts is so large. I suspect that it could be cut down. I do think that we have an obligation to watch this very closely. In view of the increasing number of retirees, we could find ourselves with a very sizeable list of people who are working part time under contract and making as much or more money than when they were working full time.

Before submission of your next report as of 30 June 1966, I would like to ask you to review most carefully the criteria for entering into personal services contracts with civilian annuitants and to ensure that each contract is fully justified and in the best interests of the Government.

MEMORANDUM FOR : Executive Director-Comptroller

66-1551

SUBJECT : First Quarterly Report on Retired Government Civilian Annuitants

1. This report is for your information only.

2. You have requested a quarterly report on civilian annuitants of the Government rehired by the Agency and a year-end report in depth on the same subject. This first quarterly report covers the period through 31 March 1966 and consists of three sections. Each section has been labeled as an attachment.

3. Attachment A is a list of civilian annuitants currently under active CIA personal services contracts who are categorized as either Contract Employees or Contract Agents (Independent Contractors). Basic facts concerning their contracts and retirement status have been included.

4. Attachment B is a list of all civilian annuitants currently reemployed by appointment. It follows the general format of Attachment A.

5. Attachment C is a listing of Agency Consultants who are also retired civilian annuitants of the Government.

7. As you know, the compensation of an employee whether hired by contract or appointment must be reduced by the amount of his annuity. However, the fee paid an Independent Contractor is in addition to his annuity.

8. This report will be kept up-to-date by my office through 30 June 1966, at which time the next quarterly report will be submitted.
