STATEMENT OF PROBLEM		TARGET DATE
A comprehensive file of all-source information on Soviet corrective labor camps has been accumulated by GD/S in the course of general research and IMP production, and as an outgrowth of our inquiry into civil disturbances. Since the last comprehensive report on Soviet corrective labor camps was produced a decade ago (by ORR in 1958), there has been a lack of reliable up-to-date information in the intelligence community on the subject. We think that the number and capacity of these camps is greater than what is generally believed (there are about 600 camps on our list now). In view of the widespread interest which we have encountered on this subject, we should now publish our findings in a report that analyzes current distribution and includes a comprehensive map showing all known camps categorized according to size and economic activity.		August 1968
