3. In a separate book, I have pulled together for you the various ad hoc background pieces you had asked for yesterday from [redacted] I am not sure how much of that you want to review for tomorrow's session, but I have tried to organize it so you can easily leaf through it. 25X1

MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

FROM : SA/DCI/IA

SUBJECT : SSCI Session on El Salvador

1. Attached are the most recent materials I have for tomorrow's session, which, as you know, is intended to respond to SSCI questions following the Director's appearance on 25 February.

2. Included in this book is the set of questions from the SSCI to which DIA, CIA, and INR have contributed responses; some of the DDO's responses were forwarded by the Director to Goldwater and Moynihan today (see Tab C). This was an effort to meet in some measure the Committee's desire to have the responses in writing. Tab D includes the package of joint CIA, DIA, and INR responses to most of the remaining questions.

3. [redacted] people are still working on the answers to some of the questions, but the answers probably will not be ready until tomorrow.

4. It was agreed this morning at a meeting with the Director that Hugh Montgomery would respond to the human rights questions, [redacted] would respond to the military-related questions, and [redacted] would address the political questions, including questions on the leftists and rightists. [redacted] will also be along to provide backup.
