MEMORANDUM FOR: Director, Office of Special Projects

SUBJECT : Manning for the NRO Staff

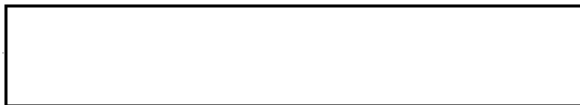

1. You are hereby charged with the responsibility of nominating Agency employees to fulfill assignments on the NRO staff. While recognizing that the reservoir of talent extends beyond OSP's immediate office and encompasses the entire Agency, it will be your charge to identify and make recommendations for selection to the Director of CIA Reconnaissance and me.

2. You also are responsible for providing whatever administrative support may be required of these individuals in the sense of handling their T&A records, obtaining promotions, replacements, and transfers.

3. You will assume responsibility for carrying whatever actions that may be appropriate through the Career Board in behalf of the individuals in question. You are advised that these personnel will not be within your chain of command; however, they will look to you for their Agency support and career development.

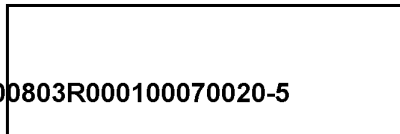

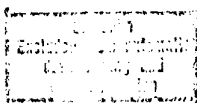

4. Details concerning the nomination and selection of such individuals will be the subject of further discussion between your Office,  and me.
