MEMORANDUM FOR:

SUBJECT : NIO/EAP Participation in Academic Relations

1. Under H. NFAC People Teaching at Academic Institutions, I should be listed. I taught at Johns Hopkins SAIS for 12 weeks starting in February 1978.

2. On January 11, I attended a conference sponsored by the Carnegie Endowment at which Ambassador Underhill spoke on US policy towards Southeast Asia. On 14 February, I spoke at the National War College on developments in East Asia. On 21 March, I participated in sessions sponsored by the Japan Foundation at Brookings Institute on the role of Japanese business in determination of Japanese policies. On 6 April, I attended a meeting at Woodrow Wilson Center on international events on the Korean Peninsula. On 13 April, I chaired a conference on Japan at SAIS. On 14 April, I attended a Japan seminar at Columbia University. That meeting was given over to a retrospective view of Japanese/American financial negotiations in 1972. On 19 April, I attended a meeting with Professor Yoshiko Seki at George Washington University. On 26 April, I attended a meeting on the Japanese economy at the Asia Society. On 2 May, I attended an academic meeting with Professor Sazanomi at the Brookings Institute on the Japanese economy. On 25 May, I participated at a meeting on the Korean problem in US foreign policy at the Woodrow Wilson Center.
