NFAC #3342/79

25 June 1979

MEMORANDUM FOR: See Distribution

FROM   : Associate Coordinator for Academic Relations, NFAC

SUBJECT   : Dr. Raymond Duncan, 28 June 1979 Visit

1. Dr. Duncan, a political science professor at the State University of New York, Brockport, will be visiting NFAC on Thursday, 28 June 1979. He is in the process of gathering material for a book on "Soviet Policy in Developing Countries." Dr. Duncan receives our unclassified publications.

2. The conference room 2F47 has been reserved for 9:30-10:30.

3. See attachment for brief bio.

STATINTL

Attachment:
  Bio Sheet

Distribution:
STATINTL
  1 - ███████y/OER
  1 - ███████/OSR   STATINTL
  1 - ███████/OPA/USSR
  1 - ██████████/OPA/Cuba Center
  2 - NFAC/CAR
  1 - NFAC Registry

NFAC/ACAR/████/js (25 June 1979)
              STATINTL

DUNCAN, W. Raymond 1936-

PERSONAL: Born March 14, 1936, in Ancon, Panama Canal Zone; son of Walter F. (an electrician and Francis (Davis) Duncan; married Ute M. Clemen, September 13, 1961; children: Erik, Christopher. Education: University of California, Riverside, A.B. 1919;
Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy, M.A. 1962,
M.A.L.D., 1963, Ph.D., 1964. Religion: Protestt.
Home: 328 Campbell Rd., Brockport, N.Y. 14420.

fice: State University of New York at Brockport, Brockport, N.Y.

CAREER: State University of New York at Brockport, associate professor, 1968-72, professor of political science, 1972—. Military service: U.S. Army, 1959-61.
Member: American Political Science Association, American Association of University Professors.

WRITINGS: (With James Nelson Goodsell) The Quest for Change in Latin America, Oxford University Press, 1970; Soviet Policy in Developing Countries, Blaisdell, 1970.

WORK IN PROGRESS: Nationality, Citizenship and Politics in Latin America; research on ethnicity and national identity in the "third world," on the politics of economic growth in the "third world," and on Soviet policy in developing countries.