Dear Mr. Fillari,

Admiral Turner has asked me to thank you for your letter of 26 January. The Central Intelligence Agency does not have its public visits set up as yet. At the moment, we are looking toward late spring or early summer before they can begin. I can offer you and your Political Science Society a briefing here at the Agency from a senior Agency official, with a question and answer session following.

I have tried to reach you by telephone, with no success. I would appreciate your calling me at your convenience so that we can discuss your proposed visit. My number is (703) 351-7676 or 7753.

Looking forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,

STATINTL
