Dear [Redacted]

On behalf of the Chinese Language Club, I would like to convey our sincere appreciation for the opportunity to visit the Central Intelligence Agency and hear the briefings presented on 2 April 1982. It was exciting for the cadets to have such a distinguished "Old Grad," as [Redacted] address the group. [Redacted] were most kind to share their knowledge and impressions of The People's Republic of China. As all cadets were students of Chinese Language and/or area studies, those briefings were particularly stimulating. The fact that it was almost necessary for me to drag some of the cadets away from [Redacted] after her intriguing talk on career opportunities reflects how persuasive she is! Special thanks are given to Mr. Charles Wilson who was our host in your absence.

We all hope that next year we again will be allowed to benefit from a visit to CIA. Thank you very much.

Respectfully,

GEORGE H. WATKINS
