Summary of IG/CI Meeting
6 September 1984,
Executive Conference Room, FBI Headquarters

1. The meeting was opened at 1005 hours by Judge William H. Webster, Chairman, who stated the meeting was being held to discuss the 17 options developed in response to direction from the Chairman of the SIG-I. The Chairman emphasized that the National Security Council (NSC) had asked that those options be formulated. During the meeting, agreement on each option would be sought and those options to go forward to the SIG-I would be selected. Judge Webster further stated that if agreement cannot be reached, he, as Chairman, would forward the options to the SIG-I with individual agency positions included.
