The Honorable Malcolm Wallop
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Wallop,

I am pleased that you will be giving the keynote address on 29 August to our conference on Soviet deception. We intend to publish a classified volume of conference proceedings, and I would like to include your remarks in that volume.

25X1

The conference plans seem to be shaping up nicely. As you will see from the enclosed agenda, we will be covering the significant issues that bear on Soviet deception efforts, and we have enlisted the help of many outstanding experts in the field to examine the issues.

Our conference Administrator, [redacted] will be contacting your office with further details. I am looking forward to your contribution to our deliberations.

Sincerely,

William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence
