Washington, DC 20500

Dear Mr. Casey:

Enclosed is your complimentary copy of the new completely revised 1984 edition of French Company Handbook, published in cooperation with the International Herald Tribune.

While French companies have become increasingly active throughout the world, there was, until our first edition in 1981, no handy business and financial guide to them in English.

French Company Handbook brings you detailed information on 81 of the most important of these companies, in addition to other key facts on French industry and finance, the Paris stock exchange (up 56% in 1983), and a practical bilingual dictionary of financial terms.

We are pleased to send you this new reference work, and we would very much welcome your comments regarding your interest in receiving future complimentary annual editions of French Company Handbook. Because we, as publishers, are constantly concerned with assuring the maximum usefulness of this reference work, we would also particularly appreciate your informing us as to whether and how it has increased your knowledge about French companies and been of assistance in your business decisions.

With thanks in advance, we remain

Barton Reichert Sincerely, Irving Sedar
