Gentlemen,

We are in the business of marketing architectural/engineering services. In the past, we have matched government agencies such as the Veterans' Administration and Postal Service with well-qualified a/e firms who have successfully met their design needs. Currently, we are interested in obtaining any information you can provide us with regarding the Central Intelligence Agency's listing(s) of proposed building projects. Please let us know whom we may contact in reference to the above.

Thank you in advance for your time in attending this matter.

Sincerely,

Maria Bardino
