STAT

As you know, for the past several weeks your application for employment with this Agency has been under review by Agency managers.

These reviews have been completed and I regret to advise you that, unfortunately, you were not selected. You should not feel that this is a reflection on your skills and abilities. The competition for the few available positions is very intense and only a few of the very highly qualified applicants are finally offered positions.

Thank you for your interest in the Agency and for your patience. I am sorry our review could not be positive and wish you success in your future endeavors.

Sincerely,

Robert W. Magee
Director of Personnel
