We have checked with our Office of Medical Services, which unfortunately only has part-time openings right now. Our Director of Personnel has advised  of this directly and has supplied her with application forms in case she might be interested in a part-time position.

We certainly appreciate your keeping an eye out for your old outfit. We find that our best new people usually come from referrals from people like yourself.

There is nothing that Peggy and I would like better than to take you up on your offer for a visit. As you might guess, things keep pretty hectic around here, but if we ever see a window of opportunity we might just surprise you.

Best to Kitty

Warm regards,

John N. McMahon
