William J. Casey
 Director
 Central Intelligence Agency
 Washington, DC 20505

Dear Mr. Casey:

I hope this letter finds you in good health and happy spirits. I must apologize for any inconvenience we may have caused your office regarding the light aircraft demonstration at Quantico 14 - 15 Nov 83. It was an off again, on again event and we felt it best not to trouble you personally. Since I left the Special Operations Division of OJCS J3 I have concentrated on attempting to shorten the research development and acquisition time for mission unique, mission essential weapons and equipment for special troops. Although we are making significant strides in this area, much effort remains necessary regarding establishment of institutional understanding and appreciation for the value and necessary crafts of this level of warfare.

Sir, my main purpose for writing is to introduce [redacted] a first class political warfare officer and social scientist who has been performing spartan duty on the Army staff and the OJCS. He is an outstanding researcher and analyst and would be a valuable addition to your operations group. He is currently being considered for such a position and is anxious for the opportunity to serve with your folks. [redacted] has worked both with and for me and the results have always been outstanding. He is currently back with the Army staff serving in the Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff for Operations (Special Operations Division). STAT

Attached for your information is a copy of his vitae which I feel certain you will find impressive. I sincerely hope you will influence this action favorably. Thank you and God Bless.

Sincerely,

[redacted signature]
