This is a follow-up to Mr. Magee's memorandum of 19 January 1984 with additional information relating to applicants.

The Office of Personnel over the past week has extended a task force effort to clear the backlog of cases caused by computer down time during the December transition when it moved to [Redacted]. As of 17 January there were 1015 applicant cases in process, an increase of 149 from the previous week. There are now 904 cases under review by the components, almost double the 460 of 10 January. In addition, there are 637 cases being reviewed and processed prior to sending them to components. Resumes have been arriving at the rate of about 150 per day; there are presently 1200 being reviewed and some 1000 plus have been processed in the last week.
