Dear Director Casey:

My continued interest in our government, particularly those agencies having to do with domestic and foreign intelligence, causes me to recommend young men who have interest and ambitions in that field. I do this only when such individuals are unquestionably outstanding in character and eminently qualified insofar as education, knowledge, and experience are concerned.

Accordingly, I am enclosing herewith the curriculum vitae of a [redacted] It is my understanding that [redacted] has submitted an application, which may be under consideration by the Director of Personnel.
