

STAT

	STA
\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\
The Honorable William J. Casey, Director Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505
Dear Mr. Casey:
You may perhaps remember my father, , who was in the	ST
0.S.S. and knew you in World War II. He has always spoken of you with enthusiasm and admiration. For a time after the War,	ST
I myself would like to work for the C.I.A. and I am writing to ask you the best way	ST to work for the C. L.A. and J. am writing to, ask you the Dest. way in which to do this.
	STA
	STA
 I have been in solo practise in McLean and have been very successful. However, I have always been patriotic and want to	STA
 I have been in solo practise in McLean and have been very successful. However, I have always been patriotic and want to serve my country. In this respect, private practise is not satisfying to me.
I have been in solo practise in McLean and have been very successful. However, I have always been patriotic and want to	ST/
I have been in solo practise in McLean and have been very successful. However, I have always been patriotic and want to serve my country. In this respect, private practise is not satisfying to me. I am eager to do something more. I have considered joining the army, but I feel would be more useful in the Agency.
I have been in solo practise in McLean and have been very successful. However, I have always been patriotic and want to serve my country. In this respect, private practise is not satisfying to me. I am eager to do something more. I have considered joining the army, but I feel would be more useful in the Agency.  I have a second career, as an author. I had a magazine column for eight
I have been in solo practise in McLean and have been very successful. However, I have always been patriotic and want to serve my country. In this respect, private practise is not satisfying to me. I am eager to do something more. I have considered joining the army, but I feel would be more useful in the Agency.
I have been in solo practise in McLean and have been very successful. However, I have always been patriotic and want to serve my country. In this respect, private practise is not satisfying to me. I am eager to do something more. I have considered joining the army, but I feel would be more useful in the Agency.  I have a second career, as an author. I had a magazine column for eight years and have written two successful popular books, as well as scientific articles for medical journals.
I have been in solo practise in McLean and have been very successful. However, I have always been patriotic and want to serve my country. In this respect, private practise is not satisfying to me. I am eager to do something more. I have considered joining the army, but I feel would be more useful in the Agency.  I have a second career, as an author. I had a magazine column for eight years and have written two successful popular books, as well as scientific articles for medical journals.  I would like to work for the Agency, and would be able to work abroad.
I have been in solo practise in McLean and have been very successful. However, I have always been patriotic and want to serve my country. In this respect, private practise is not satisfying to me. I am eager to do something more. I have considered joining the army, but I feel would be more useful in the Agency.  I have a second career, as an author. I had a magazine column for eight years and have written two successful popular books, as well as scientific articles for medical journals.
I have been in solo practise in McLean and have been very successful. However, I have always been patriotic and want to serve my country. In this respect, private practise is not satisfying to me. I am eager to do something more. I have considered joining the army, but I feel would be more useful in the Agency.  I have a second career, as an author. I had a magazine column for eight years and have written two successful popular books, as well as scientific articles for medical journals.  I would like to work for the Agency, and would be able to work abroad. Since you are the Director-General of the C.I.A. I am taking the liberty of writing to ask you what, in your opinion, my next step should be.
I have been in solo practise in McLean and have been very successful. However, I have always been patriotic and want to serve my country. In this respect, private practise is not satisfying to me. I am eager to do something more. I have considered joining the army, but I feel would be more useful in the Agency.  I have a second career, as an author. I had a magazine column for eight years and have written two successful popular books, as well as scientific articles for medical journals.  I would like to work for the Agency, and would be able to work abroad. Since you are the Director-General of the C.I.A. I am taking the liberty
I have been in solo practise in McLean and have been very successful. However, I have always been patriotic and want to serve my country. In this respect, private practise is not satisfying to me. I am eager to do something more. I have considered joining the army, but I feel would be more useful in the Agency.  I have a second career, as an author. I had a magazine column for eight years and have written two successful popular books, as well as scientific articles for medical journals.  I would like to work for the Agency, and would be able to work abroad. Since you are the Director-General of the C.I.A. I am taking the liberty of writing to ask you what, in your opinion, my next step should be.
I have been in solo practise in McLean and have been very successful. However, I have always been patriotic and want to serve my country. In this respect, private practise is not satisfying to me. I am eager to do something more. I have considered joining the army, but I feel would be more useful in the Agency.  I have a second career, as an author. I had a magazine column for eight years and have written two successful popular books, as well as scientific articles for medical journals.  I would like to work for the Agency, and would be able to work abroad. Since you are the Director-General of the C.I.A. I am taking the liberty of writing to ask you what, in your opinion, my next step should be.
I have been in solo practise in McLean and have been very successful. However, I have always been patriotic and want to serve my country. In this respect, private practise is not satisfying to me. I am eager to do something more. I have considered joining the army, but I feel would be more useful in the Agency.  I have a second career, as an author. I had a magazine column for eight years and have written two successful popular books, as well as scientific articles for medical journals.  I would like to work for the Agency, and would be able to work abroad. Since you are the Director-General of the C.I.A. I am taking the liberty of writing to ask you what, in your opinion, my next step should be.

