- ODP personnel met with representatives from the OSWR to discuss their plans for colorgraphics terminals for each branch in fiscal years 1984 and 1985.
- A two-day Teleprocessing Conference was held at the Reston Sheraton 16-17 January 1984 to address the various teleprocessing issues arising in the upcoming years. The conference was well attended by over 40 personnel, including representatives of OC, ODP, OD&E, ASG/DDI and IMS/DDO.
- One of the many requests received this week for the review of documents pursuant to the FOIA was from former DCI William E. Colby. Mr. Colby is writing a book on Vietnam. While acknowledging his support of the Agency's desire to exempt operational files from FOIA search, he commented that ". . . until the matter is settled by Congress I believe it appropriate to request the application of current law." Enclosed with Mr. Colby's letter was a list of documents which he requested be reviewed for release; he also provided information as to where the requested documents might be located.
- Representatives from Eastman Kodak visited the Archives and Records Center to examine the condition of NPIC film data back to 1956. No major problems were identified with any of the random samples which were examined, but a report will be issued with a full analysis of the data collected.
