MEMORANDUM FOR: Director, Foreign Broadcast Information Service

FROM : Chief, FBIS London Bureau

THROUGH : Chief, Operations Group

SUBJECT : Monthly Report - London Bureau - August 1986

I. GENERAL

1. At the request of BBC GMS Eric Bowman the bureau agreed to turn over cubicle space presently occupied by the Moslem World Review writers who are to be relocated in the PMU portacabin. Partitioned office space has been identified and the Monitoring Service has agreed to fund all associated costs, including partitioning, power points, rewiring, and relocation of heating and air conditioning units. No disruptions to PMU or MWR operations are anticipated. Completion of the move is scheduled for mid-September.
2. According to a report in THE OBSERVER, a BBC world service satellite television channel could be launched next year if approved by BBC management and financing is available. A joint project of the BBC World Service based at Bush House and the television service, the channel could cost as much as 10 million pounds a year to operate. Initially the service would be available to other broadcasting organizations, cable operators or businesses, broadcasting 6 to 12 hours daily news programs containing 15-20 items apiece with bulletins being repeated and updated every few hours. By the 1990's the service could be seen by millions of viewers with their own satellite dishes or on cable, according to the report. In direct competition is the recently announced Independent Television Network's 20-million-pound proposal to offer a 24-hour news channel to potential operators of Britain's DBS service. The ITN plan offers news, current affairs, Parliament reports, and some sport and would be ready for the DBS service by about 1989.

II. OPERATIONS

A. Monitorial/Editorial

1. In a welcome modification of established reporting procedures, Headquarters concurred in bureau/BBC proposals to no longer provide the names of Soviet TV Vremya newsreaders in subslugs of filed items and wirefiled program summaries, discontinue including repeat patterns for Moscow Radio's four Orbita services in the commentary listings, and, for the first time, include items from Soviet television in the consolidated commentary lists.

2. The Monitoring Service was particularly appreciative of Headquarters concurrence in a bureau/BBC proposal to provide less-than-textual translation of mandatory Soviet leadership statements in certain well-defined situations such as the walking tours of General Secretary Gorbachev when the remarks of Gorbachev and his interlocutors are difficult to distinguish and appear to be a commonplace exchange of pleasantries. Such comments will henceforth be summarized or described within an editorial report, thus relieving monitors and editors of time-consuming efforts to provide text of insignificant comment.
3. On 18 August the pressfax produced a 3,000-word PRAVDA prereleased text of the speech General Secretary Gorbachev was to deliver later that same evening. PMU Russian linguists finished the translation and filed the text within less than 3 hours, thus providing a grateful Monitoring Service with an English-language version to use when monitoring the speech later on Soviet television.

B. Communications

Total bureau wordage for the month was 2,229,570 for an average of 71,922 words per day, only slightly higher than the daily average for August of 69,625 over the past 10 years.

C. Lateral Services

Early in the month Headquarters attention was drawn to a request from the American Embassy in Moscow for a videocassette recording of the 27 July Soviet TV Vremya program prompted by the bureau's program summary filed to the embassy.

D. Technical

1. At month's end the Communication Unit's Commsec IBM XT had to be removed for repairs by the bureau contract maintenance company ISG. It is expected to be operational again by 10 September. Meanwhile the unit continues to use the remaining XT without backup.
2. Although an automatic numbering device for the circuit traffic has been designed, constructed and installed by bureau engineers, a possible coding problem has developed which will require further work before the unit is fully operational.
3. New, non-glare overhead light fittings have been installed in the editorial and communications rooms, thus completing the bureau-wide project to upgrade VDU work areas.
