5 authorized to construct a single stage retention structure
6 near the confluence of the Toutle and Green Rivers with 7 such design features as the Chief of Engineers determines to 8 be advisable, including justified measures to mitigate for ad-
9 verse environmental impacts associated with the project;
10 except that, based on the results of Continuation of Planning
11 and Engineering studies, the Secretary of the Army may 12 select and implement a staged sediment retention structure at 13 the confluence of the Toutle and Green Rivers or dredging
14 alternative on the Toutle, Cowlitz and Columbia Rivers if he 15 determines that continuing monitoring of sedimentation and 16 further analysis of benefits and costs provide compelling and

24 time needed, as determined by the Chief of Engineers, and 25 without cost to the United States; except in the event the

1 Secretary of the Army selects a staged sediment retention
2 structure or dredging alternative rather than the single stage
3 sediment retention structure, any increase this selection
4 causes in the cost of local cooperation requirements, as deter-
5 mined by the Secretary of the Army, will be reimbursed by 6 the Federal Government.

7 Any goods and services purchased by the United States

3 appendix D of the Final Supplement to the Environmental 4 Impact Statement provided to the Environmental Protection
5 Agency and the United States District Court but under the

20 and that joint resolution shall be placed on the appropriate
21 calendar of the House.

22 (5)(A) At any time after the first joint resolution placed 23 on the appropriate calendar has been on that calendar for a

25 the House (after consultation with the Speaker as to the most

1 appropriate time for the consideration of that joint resolution)
2 to move that the House resolve itself into the Committee of 4 respect to the procedure to be followed in the House in 5 the case of a joint resolution, and it supersedes other 6 rules only to the extent that it is inconsistent with 7 such rules; and

8 (B) with full recognition of the constitutional right 9 of the House to change its rules at any time, in the 10 same manner, and to the same extent as in the case of
