United States Department of State

Washington, D.C. 20520

Dear Mr. Chairman:

I am responding to your letter of April 30 to the Secretary concerning S. Res. 142, "To support democratic government in Latin America".

We agree with the premise and spirit of the resolution. Communist regimes violate the human rights of their own citizens and aid efforts that violate human rights in other countries. The presence and potential growth of communism in the Americas leads to regional instability, is a threat to our own security and is of grave concern to us.

The United States must take a pro-active -- not reactive -- approach to expansionist communist efforts. As we pursue our goals in Latin America, however, we must maintain the latitude to allocate or not allocate our aid to individuals, groups and nations on a case-by-case basis. We think the resolution would be more effective if it gave the Executive Branch a greater range of possible responses by deleting the words "any" and "any and all" from paragraph four.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

William L. Ball, III
Assistant Secretary
Legislative and Intergovernmental Affairs

The Honorable
Richard G. Lugar,
Committee on Foreign Relations,
United States Senate.
