Mr. Robert Rubenstein
US Department of Energy
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Bob:

Thank you for including me in the recent meeting of the Weapons Intelligence Panel at Hanford. Of course, it remains to be seen whether or not the meeting was an historic occasion. Please convey my thanks to Lou Martucci who did a quite spendid job on the agenda and creature comforts.

My presentation was a more or less general introduction to the business of proliferation intelligence at the national level. I will be pleased to get into some of the more interesting substantive particulars at the WIP's next meeting.

Sincerely yours,

STAT
