Hormer U.S. Envoy Hits Early Jashington Anti-Castro Stand

Washington Post Foreign Service

last American ambassador Boeing jets is considered by Soviet Cuban Sugar Deal to Chile has asked the State did the Cubans. Department to send him a copy forthwith.

early provocations triggered unfustifiably harsh U.S. reprisals, beginning with a crucial decision implemented by the Secretary of mate decisions lie with Presthe Treasury.

says that the American gov. under President Kennedy. ernment informed him of pany excutive.

"... We in the Havana against Cuba. sal.

Eerie Similarities

that U.S. policies unfavora- per investments. than by the State Depart- boy was to negotiate quietly the Sayict strikes of 144500010019008720xist ment.

Approved For Resease 200 and were Confiscated by authoritarian.

The decision to deny Ex-not to intervene in Cuban Cuba. A month later, in Soc. 4.01. 2 Cuba ort Import Bank financing affairs.

July. came the next step in Castro and the port-Import Bank financing AIRES-The for Chilean purchase of More militant Commu-Retired Ambassador Allende assume that the Philip W. Bonsal argues, in other key decision-making did no "Cuba, Castro and the center outside the Treasury tional United States," that Castro's is the CIA, as Bonasl im trade. plies was the case in 1960.

Of course, today the ultiident Nixon. By his own ac-The decision was that the count, then Vice President two American oil companies Nixon was the prime advooperating in Cuba should recate of the 1960 decision to fuse to refine Soviet crude arm Cuban exiles for their oil that the Castro govern- eventual invasion which was

Nixon's Role

this critical turn in policy page chronicle makes it calls: only by way of an oil com clear that Cuba and Castro were far different from Al-gradually and imperfectly, 1959, to replace Earl E. T.

Davis was named early in Allende's term to replace Although the career diplo- Edward M. Korry, whose stand in this matter." mat makes no comparisons, analysis of Allende's electhere are some eeric similar toral victory supported itics between the events of those in Washington who 11 years ago and the uneasy consider Chile to be "lost." state of present U.S. rela-Korry stayed at his post tions with Chile's socialist through the first year of ne-affairs.

ing Havana, signed a deal tial prices. nists and Socialists backing for Cuban sugar. According Congress authorized the to Bonsal, the agreement, suspension, Bonsal recalls, did not endanger the tradi- after secret hearings, on the > take Soviet oil in part pay- Communist penetration of ment for the sugar—enrage the territory of American's ing traditional suppliers former staunch friend and Texaco and Esso, whose ally." The ambassador says profit remittances Castro he saw no basis for such a had already frozen.

d already frozen. contention.

Bonsal says that the com- Bonsal later learned that panies had decided to refine the decision to do in Castro, the Soviet oil under protest, had been made in March, oil that the Castro governeventual invasion which was Then an oil executive vis and the CIA had been aument imported, and Bonsal carried out, in April, 1961, ited him, at the request of thorized to start recruiting Assistant Secretary of State and training the exile army. While Bonsal's spare, 225-Roy Rubottom. Bonsal re- "It became common knowl-

This reprisal against Cas- lende and Chile, the main me that on the previous day fighters who appeared sportro's dealing with the Soviet for their possible perti-American companies ... al areas." Union was the first overt act nence—the more so since had been summoned to the in an unannounced policy there is mounting pressure office of the Secretary of that climated with the Bay there is mounting pressure office of the Secretary of that climaxed with the Bay in the hemisphere to end the Treasury, Robert Anderson, and had been informed Bonsal was named Ambas- by the Secretary that a reembassy became aware only sador to Cuba in January, fusal to accede to the Cuban government's request would and without real opportu- Smith, who had been deeply be in accord with the policy nity for comment and discommitted to the Batista of the United States governcussion, of the new policy of dictatorshop that Castro ment toward Cuba and that herence to nonintervention overthrew earlier that the companies would not must be the basis of present American antitrust laws U.S. approaches to Cuba, Bonsal adds that State Department authorities do not seem to have been con- whole. sulted on Anderson's move. The ambassador For instance, it is gener, gotiations over the fate of ally assumed in Santiago nationalized American copble to President Salvador By Bonsal's account, his tant Russian friends which the attempt to close out Cas- United States to Cuba has just written a some observes to have book on the collapse of U.S. driven Chile to the Russians President Eisenhower made important Cuban quota for Bonsal, Philipper relations with Fidel Castro, in the same way that, Bonsal just a public pledge. The and the present ambassador shows, the 1960 oil decision next month, Soviet Vice Present ambassador shows, the 1960 oil decision next month, Soviet Vice Present ambassador shows, the 1960 oil decision next month, Soviet Vice Present ambassador shows, the 1960 oil decision next month, Soviet Vice Present ambassador shows, the 1960 oil decision next month, Soviet Vice Present ambassador shows, the 1960 oil decision next month, Soviet Vice Present ambassador shows, the 1960 oil decision next month, Soviet Vice Present ambassador shows, the 1960 oil decision next month, Soviet Vice Present ambassador shows, the 1960 oil decision next month, Soviet Vice Present ambassador shows, the 1960 oil decision next month, Soviet Vice Present ambassador shows, the 1960 oil decision next month, Soviet Vice Present ambassador shows, the 1960 oil decision next month, Soviet Vice Present ambassador shows, the 1960 oil decision next month, Soviet Vice Present ambassador shows, the 1960 oil decision next month, Soviet Vice Present ambassador shows are present ambassa As late as January, 1960, tro - suspension of the allmicr Anastas Mikoyan, visit- United States at preferen- Tong under > U.S.-Cuban sugar basis that the step was "a necessary weapon to over-Then Cuban agreed to throw Castro and defeat edge in Havana that sum-"My visitor went on to tell mer that the CIA was helping the anti-Castro guerrilla

> With the oil and sugar decisions, Castro began wholesale expropriation of American holdings. He drew closer to the Soviets, and by October, Bonsal was permanently recalled to Washing-incur any penalties under must be the basis of present and of any revival of American influence and integrity in the hemisphere as a

For all his travails under then a U.S. policy on which he that had little influence, Bontheir presumably then reluc- a dictatorship in Cuba be-Allende's government are counsel against what he saw involved the fate of the generated by Treasury Sec- as Castro's efforts to use the Cuban government."

The fact of the cause the country's traditional rulership classes abdicated — believing that the cause the country's traditional rulership classes abdicated — believing that the cause the country's traditional rulership classes abdicated — believing that the cause the country's traditional rulership classes abdicated — believing that the cause the country's traditional rulership classes abdicated — believing that the cause the country's traditional rulership classes abdicated — believing that the cause the country's traditional rulership classes abdicated — believing that the cause the country's traditional rulership classes abdicated — believing that the cause the country's traditional rulership classes abdicated — believing that the cause the country's traditional rulership classes abdicated — believing that the cause the country's traditional rulership classes abdicated — believing that the cause the country's traditional rulership classes abdicated — believing that the cause the country's traditional rulership classes abdicated — believing that the cause the cause the country's traditional rulership classes abdicated the cause t cause the country's tradidicated - believing that the But the oil companies re- United States would step in

Dongued