Admiral Stansfield Turner
 Director of Central Intelligence
 Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Stan:

We are looking forward to your participation as our dinner speaker for the December 5 Joint Council Quarterly Meeting, to be held in the Kennedy Center. We will be writing you in the next few weeks with further details.

In the meantime, however, we would like to provide you with the enclosed copy of our just-published Top Management Report on "Government-Business Cooperation in Meeting World Needs." The Report presents parallel statements by Chiefs of State and Corporate Chief Executives on what governments expect of foreign international corporations -- and what international corporations expect of foreign governments. We are honored indeed that the introductory statement is by President Jimmy Carter.

With best wishes.

Cordially,

 Gene E. Bradley
 President

Stan: If your schedule ever permits, I'd like to invite you for a working breakfast on Wednesday in our Board Room to brief you on our goals, programs &
