Women Voters Will Study Red China

Relations between this country and China will be studied by the D.C. League of Women Voters next season.

The program is part of the National League's promotion of informed discussion and understanding of the impact of Communist China's emerging power upon U.S. interests and world peace.

To join the study, contact the league office Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. D.C. chairman is Mrs. Chester Carre.
