MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

SUBJECT : Nieman Fellowship Meeting in Cambridge

Jim Thomson called yesterday to say how pleased he was that you would be coming up to the Nieman Fellows. He said the usual format would be followed. The talk would be off-the-record and the persons present would be the Nieman Fellows and their wives with a couple of guests. By this he meant his own brother who is going with us, Professor Dan H. H. Ingalls former Professor of mine at Harvard, and Louis M. Lyons, former curator. These are people I asked to be included. Jim said that although campuses had toned down somewhat from recent years, he could not help but say that a number of the Fellows were quite concerned about the Agency and Chile.

Jim also wanted to emphasize once again that seven or eight of this year's Fellows are foreigners. I said you were aware of this.

Attached you will find the list of this year's Fellows.
