RESERVE OFFICERS ASSOCIATION OF THE UNITED STATES

Since 1922: OBJECTIVE: "The object of this Association shall be to support a military policy for the United States that will provide adequate National Security and to promote the development and execution thereof."
—Article A-2, ROA Constitution and By-Laws.

2-3

Birth of the U.S. Minute Man

"on 18 April in '75"

"Borne on the night-wind of the Past
through all our history, to the last,
In the hour of darkness and peril and need,
the people will waken, and listen to hear—"

Longfellow's great historic narrative which hailed in verse the American symbolism of the Minute Man provides the theme of ROA's 1975 Mid-Winter Conferences.

Our Association takes pride in the privilege of having a part in beginning the Nation's Bicentennial observance.

The ROA served the cause of national security for nearly 30 years before the Congress and the President, recognizing the growing (30,000) group's service, enacted the law which in effect issued a Charter and created "The Reserve Officers Association of the United States." So, this year we mark the 25th anniversary of ROA's charter.

members and their friends and spouses, emphasis has been laid this year on advance registration. For those of you who did register in advance, you have simplified the conference administration. If you have waited until your actual arrival, your patient cooperation in handling your requests at the registration desk is urged. The registration booths are situated in the Washington Hilton Concourse, which will be used exclusively for this purpose throughout the conference. The ROA National Headquarters will maintain offices in the Cabinet Room on the Concourse level. The registration fee of $47.50 per person covers all the expenses of the conference, including luncheons on Thursday and the reception, banquet and dance on Friday evening.

ROAL REGISTRATION: ROAL members will be registered as for ROA, and tickets issued will include the ROAL Luncheon and White House Tour on Thursday, and reception, banquet and dance on Friday evening.

BANQUET TABLE ASSIGNMENTS: In order to eliminate confusion and uncertainty so far as possible, assignment of banquet tables will be made after the delegations arrive and each delegation chairman or secretary is able to ascertain an accurate count of those attending. The procedure followed at the last convention will apply at the Mid-Winter, i.e., each delegation will be given the privilege of selecting their tables in the order of their department's standing in a membership activity table which will be posted. Assignments of tables will take place in the Cabinet Room beginning at 11:00 a.m. Thursday and must be completed by 2:00 p.m. The respective department officers should apply in appropriate order. The Department officers then will be responsible for seeing that their members take the numbered tables assigned to them.

INDIVIDUAL SEATS. Individuals not included in department groups will be assigned seats upon application to the office at the conclusion of the department drawing.

MEMBERS OF CONGRESS AT THE BANQUET: Department leaders generally understand the custom at the Mid-Winter Conference regarding entertainment of their Senators and Congressmen. Each department is urged to take the necessary steps to insure that their guests are met and properly escorted when they enter the hotel.

OTHER GUESTS: There also will be a number of other guests of the Association including representatives of the President of the United States, civilian secretaries of the Military Services, our Military Service Chiefs, members of Congressional Staffs and the Press.

of the Washington Hilton Hotel for our meetings have been made by ROA's staff. Request for meeting room assignments and nonscheduled committee meetings and for similar purposes will be made on application at the ROA National Headquarters office in the Cabinet Room. Personal room reservations are the individual's responsibility, as to the requirement for check-out, paying of bills, etc.

VISIT YOUR CONGRESSMEN AND SENATORS: One of the important activities of ROA members during the Mid-Winter Conference is the "Visit Your Congress" program. All members of ROA and their wives are urged to visit Capitol Hill, call upon their Representative and Senators in the United States Congress, and express to each an appreciation for their past support and hopes for their support in the future.

PAY RESPECTS TO CONGRESS STAFFERS: Congress is in session, but many members will be in Committee. Do not miss the opportunity to visit their offices and to talk to their administrative assistants or other staff members. (They're the ones who do the work!)

ROA-DOD-ROTC CONFERENCE: As in 1974, ROA again is staging, with the cooperation of the Department of Defense, an ROTC, AFROTC and NROTC Conference in connection with the ROA Conferences. Some 250 outstanding cadets and midshipmen of Army, Navy and Air Force, from the nation's great university and college campuses, are here for an all-day Friday conference with the key officials in the Department of Defense and officers of the Military Services, at the Pentagon, and on Thursday for a breakfast on Capitol Hill, and a sharing of ROA's Thursday Service Section Luncheons and Meetings, and the Anniversary Banquet on Friday night. These students recommended by the Military Professors on their own campuses, are representative of the finest of American youth who are committing themselves to military service in the Reserves and to service to their country in any future national emergency. They are welcomed and honored guests of the various ROA Departments and of the National Association as a whole. The Conference was arranged by Mr. Thomas W. Carr, Special Assistant for Educational Matters, Office, Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense (Education) and his Director, LTC Jack Gentry, Director of Precommissioning Programs along with ROA's ROTC Committee.

NATIONAL COUNCIL MEETING: The National President has called the National Council to meet on Friday morning; while only members of the Council will be admitted to the section reserved to its members, and observers in the "gallery" established for that purpose. In this connection, your attention is invited to the composition of the Council, i.e., members of the National Executive Committee, plus a representative of each Department elected at the Department Convention, or another member of his department designated by the National Councilman if he, himself, cannot come to Washington at that time.

RESOLUTIONS: The National President and the Chairman of the Resolutions Committee, with the National Staff, have made special efforts this year to have available for Council members upon their arrival in Washington, copies of all resolutions which have been submitted for consideration by the Council, thus giving the Council members 24 hours or more to consider them. The bulk of these resolutions was produced by the Fall Service Section Meetings and those received from departments and committees at least 15 days in advance of the National Council Meeting, as specified by the Constitution. The report and recommendations regarding these resolutions will be submitted to the National Council Meeting on Friday.

ANNIVERSARY OF THE MINUTE MAN MEMORIAL: It was on Washington's Birthday in 1968 that the new National Headquarters—The Minute Man Memorial Building—in its prestigious location on Capitol Hill was dedicated. There will be no formal program in the building this year but the building will be open to visitors daily from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., to permit ROA and ROAL members, their guests and friends to visit the building and to note the improvements which have been made during these past twelve months. Although the usual administrative work will be in progress, the staff members in the building will be glad to pause in order to permit ROA and ROAL guests to visit the building.

SERVICE LUNCHEONS: Luncheons will be held by the Service Sections on Thursday, as shown on the Section agendas. The separate Sections will meet on Thursday morning, and will reconvene after conclusion of the luncheons.
